POLICIES:

- We reserve the right to decide if a wedding will be celebrated during a Mass or a ceremony, such as for validation of civil marriage, unmarried couples living together, or mixed marriages.
- We also reserve the right to assign a priest or deacon to serve you, based on your circumstances and the availability of clergy.
- The services of this parish are limited to parish members: those who live within the parish boundaries, and those who are registered members.
- If there are previous marriages involved no date will be set until all Church paperwork declaring freedom to marry has been concluded.
- Exceptions for scheduling dates or for fees can be discussed as needed. We will not refuse access to Sacraments due to an inability to pay.
